

WORDS

By Emily Myers

Words are powerful. Your words are powerful. You might think it's a harmless comment or message or reply, but it's not. Your words could have an impact that not even you can predict.

Your "harmless" words could be the reason someone doesn't want to get up in the morning anymore. The reason someone's everyday life becomes empty and uneventful. The reason someone walks around with a heaviness in their chest and their heart and their head. The reason it finally becomes too much for them.

There is no excuse for you to carelessly insult people. We are all human beings and we all have feelings. What does insulting them do for you?

Hiding behind a screen doesn't make you cool or invincible, it makes you a cruel coward. Just don't send that message, don't comment. You can initiate change as easily as pressing the delete button.

You could save someone's life, someone's child, someone's parent, someone's love. Simply click delete and stop cyberbullying.

Don't use your words as weapons.
