

PNA has provisionally accepted the following organizations for membership in 2026.

NERUS Strategies LLC – Affiliate Member

NERUS Strategies partners with media companies to develop and manage “Best Of” contests designed to increase audience engagement and generate revenue. The company provides contest technology and management services, including balloting, content creation, audience engagement and contestant management, while working with media partners to customize programs for their individual markets.

NewsWorks Lab – Affiliate Member

NewsWorks Lab is a public benefit news organization dedicated to strengthening investigative journalism in Western Pennsylvania. Working collaboratively with regional news organizations, colleges and universities, the Lab produces in-depth, data-driven journalism that is made available for news outlets to republish at no cost.

Technical.ly

Technical.ly is a digital news organization covering technology, startups, entrepreneurship and innovation, with Pennsylvania reporting focused on Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Through its journalism, newsletters and community engagement, Technical.ly connects entrepreneurs, technology professionals and others working within and supporting local innovation economies.

The Center Square

The Center Square is a nonprofit news organization providing statehouse and statewide coverage with a focus on government accountability and economic reporting. Its journalism is distributed at no cost through a newswire service to publishers and broadcasters, as well as through its website, syndicated platforms and social media.