

COLLEGE PRESS PASS & SUPPLIES

Student media personnel who work or freelance for a PNA collegiate member news media company are eligible to apply for a Pennsylvania Press Pass, a personalized press credential. Offered by the PNA, a Pennsylvania Press Pass is issued at the start of each academic year and helps media personnel gain access to accident and incident scenes.

A Pennsylvania Press Pass is not a government ID, but has been widely publicized to law enforcement agencies as a way to help police and other emergency personnel quickly identify and verify media personnel.

College Press Passes expire at the end of the current academic year and applications must be submitted annually. Applications for Pennsylvania Press Passes are approved at the sole discretion of the PNA.

Please note: Pennsylvania Press Passes are for identification purposes only and may be revoked at any time by the PNA.

Hang Tags

Hang tags are available to PNA members and are a great press identifier.

Security Vests

PNA members can also purchase security vests to keep reporters visible while covering breaking news and other events.

Directions to apply

Applications must be completed and signed by the Sponsoring Contact. A Sponsoring Contact is the sponsoring publisher, editor, general manager, or faculty advisor. The Sponsoring Contact must include a job title, phone number and email address for each applicant. All Pennsylvania Press Passes will be sent to the Sponsoring Contact, not to the individual applicants. The Sponsoring Contacts are responsible for the accuracy of information on all applications submitted and must return the Pennsylvania Press Pass of any holder leaving his or her employment or any freelancer whose contract has terminated. Completed passes will be mailed to the attention of the Sponsoring Contact, and passes will list the phone number of the Sponsoring Contact for law enforcement verification purposes.
