

*A free press
means free access*

It is the role of a professional journalist to question authority, expose wrongdoings, fight injustice and hold those in power accountable. It is imperative that journalists retain access to our elected officials so they can continue to share important information that allows us to make knowledgeable decisions and have thoughtful conversations.

Professional journalists are stalwart defenders and protectors of our First Amendment rights.

PENNSYLVANIA NEWSPAPERS

local • credible • reliable • connected